

Command Sergeant Major Matthew Kanowith is a native of Silver Spring, Maryland. He joined The United States Army Field Band in 2000, and served as clarinetist, soloist, and small group leader in the Concert Band for 15 years. He was a member of the Pentagon Winds Woodwind Quintet from 2006 to 2015.

After his time with the Concert Band, CSM Kanowith served as Army Field Band Budget Analyst and Organization Defense Travel Administrator from 2015 to 2018. During this time, he also served as Management Decision Package (MDEP) Manager for the Program Objective Memorandum process, ensuring long-term resource planning for Army TRADOC and Special Bands. CSM Kanowith also served as NCOIC of Operations for special courts martial in 2013.

CSM Kanowith earned a Master of Music degree from the Peabody Conservatory of The Johns Hopkins University and a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Indiana University.